AN ORIGINAL SOLD DO PRODUCTION TRANSCRIPT

Month-End the Musical

VERSE 1

Month-end hits again; the numbers start to blur.
Receipts from last month land late—of course they were!
Approvals lost in limbo, buried from your sight.
Finance hunts for hidden spend, nobody logged right.

CHORUS

You don't need to chase spend, live life at your wit's end.
Soldo sees in real time—every spend you can defend.
Cards and rules take over, keeping everything controlled.
No more panicked purchase orders, no expenses uncontrolled.
Let Soldo do the lifting—why put yourself through it?
Pro-gressive finance frees you—Just let Soldo do it.

VERSE 2

Another SaaS renewal no one meant to buy.
Someone swears they cancelled—yeah, we all know that's a lie.
Marketing wants budget, Ops needs trips approved.
Seven spreadsheets later, and you haven't even moved.

CHORUS

You don't need to chase spend, live life at your wit's end.
Soldo sees in real time—every spend you can defend.
Cards and rules take over, keeping everything controlled.
No more panicked purchase orders, no expenses uncontrolled.
Let Soldo do the lifting; track spending at-a-glance.
Welcome to clarity—that's pro-gressive finance.

VERSE 3

Cards aligned to projects, policies set tight.
Spend appears in real time with every insight.
Vendors finally sorted, subs in your control.
Finance stops the firefights—now focus on your role.

CHORUS

You don't need to chase spend, live life at your wit's end.
Soldo sees in real time—every spend you can defend.
Cards and rules take over, keeping everything controlled.
No more purchase order panics, no expenses lost to scold.
Let Soldo do the lifting; remove the monthly chore.
It's time to liberate finance and accomplish more.
